

Cynthia Jamison is a Partner and National Managing Partner of the Restructuring Practice for Tatum, an executive services firm focused exclusively on supporting the Office of the CFO through creative and flexible talent deployment, both into the CFO Chair and through consulting and controller services to support seated CFOs. Jamison's unique experiences include holding seven different CFO positions for public companies, private companies, and Private Equity portfolio companies, usually in crisis. After serving as CFO, she led Tatum CFO Services business for three years. Her unique perspective as a veteran CFO who has provided leadership to more than 500 Tatum CFO Partners has helped make her a nationally regarded expert on issues and trends in the role of the CFO. She has been quoted in the Economist, the Wall Street

Journal, Business Week, CFO Magazine, and has appeared regularly on the AICPA's CFO Series. She also currently serves as a Director on the Boards of Tractor Supply Company (NASDAQ: TSCO) and B&G Foods, Inc. (NYSE: BGS), where she chairs both Audit Committees.
