

Join us for your choice of events supporting social justice

Seattle University School of Law Celebrates Social Justice Week

Thursday, October 15 2009

Seattle University Campion Ballroom & Sullivan Hall

Supporting Pro Se Parties in ADR Processes: Ethics and Best Practices CLE & Breakfast, 7:30am-9:30am

(1.0 General and .5 Ethics CLE Credits; no charge for this session)

- Keynote speaker and panel discuss how to assist, prepare, or manage pro se parties in ADR processes. Presented by Dispute Resolution Board of Seattle University School of Law.

Poverty Law CLE featuring Interactive Poverty Simulation, 10:00am-5:00pm

Part of Lawyering in a Diverse Series (5.5 General CLE Credits. $25 for Lawyers/Free for Students)

- The Criminalization of Poverty: Lisa Daugaard, Deputy Director, The Defender Association
- Community Action Poverty Simulation: unique interactive workshop where participants role-play what it might be like to live in a typical low-income family trying to survive from month to month.
- Keeping Kids in School: Tackling the School to Prison Pipeline in Washington State: WSBA Juvenile Law Section Civil Legal Needs Committee and TeamChild
- Drug Court and Judicial Perspectives on Poverty: Wesley Saint Clair, King County Superior Court Judge

Social Justice Week Reception & Celebration at Sullivan Hall, 5:30pm

Reception and Celebration at Sullivan Hall, Second Floor Gallery (no charge)

- Social Justice in Unexpected Ways: Prof. Jay Kesan, University of Illinois College of Law

Limited space available!

Reserve your space now by e-mail to demontek@seattleu.edu with your choice of sessions.

SEATTLE UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW

Standing for excellence. Reaching for justice.