WORK EXPERIENCE

- 1987-Present Reference Librarian, Seattle University School of Law (formerly University of Puget Sound School of Law).
- Provide reference service to approximately 650 students, 40 full-time faculty, adjunct faculty, law school alumni, members of the bar, and (infrequently) to the public. Frequent lecturer on legal research and other areas of expertise. Participate in collection development, both as primary selector and reviewer (includes deselection). Participate in decisionmaking concerning other library issues such as design of new law library and librarian promotion policies. Create and update certain library publications, as necessary. Adjunct Professor of Advanced Legal Research course at the law school.
- 1999 & 2003 Acting Collection Development/Acquisitions Librarian
- Served, at the request of the Executive Director, while regular librarian was on family leave. Supervised two full-time employees plus student workers. Oversaw selection and processing of library materials (both hard copy and digital/electronic). Duties included vendor relations, processing of invoices, and overseeing major components of the law library's move from Tacoma to Seattle.
- 1994 Acting Associate Director, Seattle University School of Law.
- Served, at the request of the Library Director, as Associate Director until permanent Associate Director's hiring and employment. Supervised 12 full-time employees plus student workers. The time was shortly after announcement of the law school's sale to Seattle University. Major actions included: preliminary planning for transfer to new sponsor, inspection by the American Bar Association, involvement in hiring new Library Director at Seattle University, major book shift due to spacing difficulties.

- 1984-1987 Reference Librarian, University of Washington School of Law.
- Provided reference service to approximately 450 students, 40 full-time faculty, small number of undergraduate researchers, members of the bar, and significant number of members of the public. Lectured to Basic Legal Skills class on Legal Research.
- 1985-86 Librarian, King County Law Library
- Worked part-time (20 hours per week) at circulation desk and providing reference service. Filed looseleafs and pocket parts, shelved, and performed other clerical tasks.
- 1983-1984 Clerk-Bailiff, Seattle District Court.
- Served as contact point for attorneys and the public with Judge John G. Ritchie. Updated files in accordance with judge's decisions. Recorded proceedings electronically in case of appeal. Oversaw jurors during jury trials. Sat as judge pro tem for Small Claims Court.
