

GLOBAL JUSTICE IN SOUTH AFRICA 2012

May 27 – June 15, 2012

Sponsored by: *Seattle University School of Law and
The Mandela Institute of the University of the Witwatersrand Law School*

Program Application

(PLEASE PRINT OR TYPE)

Name (last, first, middle); nickname, if any

E-mail Address

Social Security Number

Passport Number

Home Address

Home Telephone (including area code)

Daytime Telephone

Cell Phone

Date of Birth

Gender

Citizenship

State of Legal Residence

Name and relationship of person to contact in case of emergency

Address

City

State

Zip

Home and work telephone (including area code)

GLOBAL JUSTICE IN SOUTH AFRICA 2012

May 27 – June 15, 2012

Sponsored by: *Seattle University School of Law and
The Mandela Institute of the University of the Witwatersrand Law School*

Institution in which currently enrolled

Number of credit hours completed by May 2012:

Degree(s) held and from what institution(s)

Name and phone number of faculty member who can serve as a reference:

We may also be able to assist in finding placement for Seattle University students for some 2 and 3 credit externships in Southern and/or East Africa. The externships would begin after the three-week course and would run for four to five weeks. In addition, we may be able to help find some unpaid internships.

- I am interested in applying for an externship or an internship.
 I am not interested in applying for an externship or an internship.

Classes will meet five days a week for three weeks.

During the first week, all U.S. students will take a one-credit course:

- South African Law, Policy, and History: Apartheid, Democracy, and The Future

During the second and third weeks, U.S. students will choose one of two-credit courses below. Please indicate your first, second, and third choice for the two-week course.

- International Dispute Resolution
 Law of Globalization
 Climate Change, Economics and the Law
 Human Rights and the Marketplace
 Pension Law and Regulation in Comparative Context
 Competition Law (aka Antitrust) – tentative
 Cross-Cultural Communication

GLOBAL JUSTICE IN SOUTH AFRICA 2012

May 27 – June 15, 2012

Sponsored by: Seattle University School of Law and
The Mandela Institute of the University of the Witwatersrand Law School

Acceptance to the program is based on rolling admissions.

Application Checklist – Before sending in your application, make sure to:

1. Complete the application form
2. Include with the completed application form:
 - (a) A letter of good standing from your home institution
 - (b) A copy of your transcript. (Unofficial copies are acceptable.)
 - (c) A copy of your résumé
 - (d) An essay, of no more than one page, indicating why you are interested in the program.
3. Determine how you will pay the:
 - (a) $250 nonrefundable deposit payable to Seattle University School of Law.
 - (b) Balance due April 29, 2011, unless full payment is arranged through financial aid.

Applications may be submitted electronically to Junsen Ohno at the following address: ohnoj@seattleu.edu. Your e-mail should have “South Africa Summer Application” as its subject line. Emailed applications should be encrypted or password-protected for your security. You are encouraged to send a follow-up email to ensure that your application has been received. If you do not receive a confirmation e-mail within 24 hours of your submission, you should assume that your application was not received.

You MUST give your deposit to Junsen Ohno; until then, your application is not complete.

If you plan to mail your application, please send it to:

Ms. Junsen A. Ohno
International Programs
Seattle University School of Law
901 12th Avenue, Sullivan Hall 115
Seattle, WA 98122

For more information about this program, contact Junsen Ohno, International Programs Administrator at (206)398-4283 or email at ohnoj@seattleu.edu or visit the website at www.law.seattleu.edu/x1386.xml.