

2010 Summer Legal Associates Program
WORKING WITH THE KHMER ROUGE TRIBUNAL
Documentation Center of Cambodia - Phnom Penh, Cambodia

THE DOCUMENTATION CENTER OF CAMBODIA (DC-Cam) seeks several exceptional law students to serve as Summer Legal Associates in 2010 for a minimum of nine full weeks. Summer Associates will work closely with officials and attorneys from the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia, set up in 2006 to try senior leaders of the Khmer Rouge. DC-Cam is an independent Cambodian NGO originally created by Yale University scholars pursuant to the Cambodian Genocide Justice Act of 1994. It is dedicated to ensuring memory and justice in Cambodia with respect to the abuses of the infamous Democratic Kampuchea (DK) regime. The Center documents the history of Democratic Kampuchea and promotes accountability and the rule of law, holding the world's largest body of information and potential evidence against former DK officials.

THE EXTRAORDINARY CHAMBERS IN THE COURTS OF CAMBODIA (ECCC) is putting certain former DK officials on trial, and DC-Cam is playing a central role in the proceedings. Through its Tribunal Response Team, DC-Cam assists ECCC staff, defense attorneys, and civil parties in their investigations. DC-Cam also has a Victim Participation Team that informs survivors about their rights and helps them participate in tribunal proceedings. Summer Associates will have important roles to play in these and other projects by carrying out the following duties:

- Each Summer Associate will be responsible for preparing an independent article-length legal memorandum or a similar product on a subject related to the tribunal proceedings and the quest for justice and reconciliation in Cambodia. Summer Associates will also serve as research assistants to the Director, Deputy Director, and international legal advisors of DC-Cam, sometimes assisting with other reports and publications.
- In some instances, Summer Associates will be responsible for monitoring of and reporting on proceedings in the Extraordinary Chambers and drafting periodic trial reports, which will be distributed through listservs and print newsletters.
- Summer Associates will participate in DC-Cam's outreach to Cambodian society in Phnom Penh and beyond. This may involve assisting in field trips, attending public educational forums, and drafting short educational pieces for the Center's magazine, Searching for the Truth.

LAW STUDENTS with an avid interest in international criminal law, human rights law, and Southeast Asian studies are invited to apply. This internship position comes with a stipend. Interested SU students should e-mail their resume, a one-page statement of interest, an unofficial transcript and contact information for three references to Junsen Ohno at ohnoj@seattleu.edu by January 29, 2010.
