Healthcare Compliance Certification Program 2012 Health Law Student Scholarship

The Healthcare Compliance Certification Program is a multi-day educational program that addresses the myriad of legal and compliance issues faced by the pharmaceutical and medical device industries.

Purpose

This award recognizes promising health law students with an aptitude for and commitment to a career in health law focusing on legal and compliance issues within the pharmaceutical, biotech, and medical technology industries.

Eligibility

Each nominee must qualify under the following criteria:

- The nominee shall be a 2L or 3L student currently enrolled in an accredited North American law school* on a full- or part-time basis who, through his or her law school academic and clinical work and other related activities, demonstrates an aptitude for and commitment to a legal career in health care law within the pharmaceutical, biotech and/or medical technology industries.
- The nominee must be available to attend the June 11-14, 2012 Healthcare Compliance Certification Program.
- Multiple nominations per law school may be made.
- The following materials must be submitted (the submission of additional material is not encouraged):
 1. A signed letter from the Dean, clinical program director, or law school professor teaching in a health law or related area nominating the candidate and setting forth the basis for the nomination, including a description of the purposes and content of the class or clinical program in which the student is enrolled (electronic copy followed by original mailed copy required).
 2. The nominee's current resume, including most recent GPA (electronic copy required).
 3. A brief personal statement of no more than two (2) typewritten pages highlighting the nominee's background, experience, and other relevant information that qualifies him or her to win the scholarship (electronic copy required).

Judging

1. All applications will be judged by members of the Seton Hall Law School Faculty. All decisions are final.
2. All applications will be judged on the strength of the eligibility criteria, letter of nomination, and personal statement.
3. No scholarship will be awarded if the faculty members determine that no application meets the scholarship standards.

Awards

Two scholarships ($2,400 value) shall be awarded in 2012. Scholarship recipients must attend the June 11-14, 2012, Healthcare Compliance Certification Program.

The scholarship covers tuition, educational materials, breakfast, lunch, and parking during the program. Please note that transportation and hotel costs are not included.
