Tuesday, October 7

How to be a Mentee/Creating Useful Networks

Facilitated by: Fé Lopez, Assistant Director for Student Life and Stacey Lara-Kerr, Associate Director of Center for Professional Development

"How to be a Mentee" is a presentation on the does and don'ts of being a good and effective mentee. Having mentors is extremely important in a law student and young attorney's career. They can provide much needed guidance and can often be an advocate in obtaining and retaining a job.

"Creating Useful Networks" is a presentation on how law students can create and maintain networks within the legal community. This is an opportunity to find out the diverse variety of legal networks in our community and how to create your own.

Tuesday, October 7, 2008
12:00 p.m. to 12:50 p.m.
2nd Floor Gallery
Pizza will be provided.

RSVP by Monday, October 6, 2008 to lawstudentevents@seattleu.edu.

Law Student Diversity Table Talk: Race, Gender and the Election

Presented and facilitated by Seattle University Office of Multicultural Affairs. This is a student-initiated event.

Diversity is an important component of who and what we are as a law school; the more we discuss critical issues of race, class, gender, ability and sexual orientation, the better we can continue to advance social justice. Table Talk is an informal, small group, facilitated conversation over a meal. Participants will be given background reading (short reading) in advance to spark conversation about the intersection of race and gender in political power.

Tuesday, October 7, 2008
6:00 p.m. to 7:20 p.m.
2nd Floor Gallery
Dinner provided.

RSVP by Monday, October 6, 2008 to Malou Chavez, SBA Diversity Representative at chavezm2@seattleu.edu.

MOOT COURT BOARD PRESENTS

the Fall Mock Trial Competition
Friday, October 10, 2008 – Saturday, October 11, 2008

In mock trial competitions, students act as attorneys in a simulated trial. Teams of two competitors will compete in at least two rounds where they take turns arguing for the both the plaintiff and defense. Teams will also need two to four volunteer witnesses to testify. Participation in the competition is a great way to learn how to apply specific laws, gain hands-on simulated trial experience, and develop skills such as critical thinking and public speaking.

Sign Up: Moot Court Bulletin Board until Friday, September 26, 2008

Last Day to Withdraw: October 3, 2008

Pre-Requisites for Mock Trial Participation:

Each competitor must be a second year law student in good academic standing, and meet at least one of the following criteria:

1. Participate in three hours of trial advocacy training that will be provided by Seattle University faculty; or
2. Have taken or are currently in Comprehensive Pre-trial Advocacy or Comprehensive Trial Advocacy; or
3. Have already participated in a mock trial competition in law school.

Note: Even if a competitor meets the 2nd or 3rd criteria, he or she is still strongly encouraged to attend the three hours of trial advocacy training.

Please contact the competition administrators, Susan Marx <marxs@seattleu.edu> and Andrew Krawczyk <krawczyk@seattleu.edu> with any questions.

ADMISSION AMBASSADORS

The Admission Office is seeking volunteers to serve as Admission Ambassadors. Admission Ambassadors are current law students who wish to play an active role in the admission process. Admission Ambassadors must feel positively about their SU experience, enjoy their colleagues and want to assist prospective and admitted students with obtaining more information about SU.

Essential Job Function

- Guide tours for students and other visitors of the law school
- Serve as class escorts
- Socialize with prospective and admitted students at events including recruitment events, open houses, receptions, Spring Visit Day and others
- Serve on panels at events
- Host prospective and admitted students at coffee/lunch visits (cost of event covered by the admission office)
- Allow for their contact information, legal interests and undergraduate information be part of a brochure and online directory (online directory is password protected)
- Social networking with prospective and admitted students (i.e. Twitter and Facebook)

Compensation/Perks

- While there is no monetary compensation, there is a points incentive system. Admission Ambassadors earn points toward SU apparel, gift cards and other nonmonetary incentives.
- You will have the opportunity to network with alumni and other legal professionals
- Resume builder
- Admission Ambassadors are given the first opportunity to serve as phonathon callers which are paid (!) positions in the Spring (February – April)

Time Commitment

We understand that you have other commitments and need time to study. Therefore we ask you to only commit to as much time as you feel comfortably fits into your schedule, even if that's only one hour per week. All we ask is your reliability for the time you commit to.

How to Get Involved

If you are interested in sharing your SU experience with others submit a letter of interest and your schedule to Rebecca Charles, Assistant Director of Admission, in the Admission Office. If you have any questions, please call 206.398.4204 or e-mail to charlesr@seattleu.edu.

Research Assistant Needed

Professor Margaret Chon needs research assistants for a few projects on intellectual property and development, until Thanksgiving holiday. RAs typically work about 10 hours/week.

The projects include:

- Research support for a certification mark article
- Updating a citation bibliography database
- Updating an intellectual property and development database
- Occasional help with Powerpoint slides

Applicants should have completed their second year of law school, and have already taken survey intellectual property and/or trademark law. Ideally, they should have experienced and/or have interest in intellectual property, globalization, development studies and social justice work.

Interested applicants should send a cover letter and resumé to Junsen Ohno at ohnoj@seattleu.edu by Friday, October 10, 2008.

Washington State Bar Association: Young Lawyers Division- Volunteer Opportunity Mock Trials

Each year, the Washington State Bar Association Young Lawyers Division coordinates a Trial Advocacy Program. The second weekend of the program consists of mock trials at the King County Courthouse in Seattle. They are conducted entirely in character as if they were real trials, with local county judges presiding. The judges also provide constructive oral feedback on the participants' performance immediately following the trial.

We are recruiting young lawyers and law students to act as jury members in the mock trials. This is an excellent opportunity to become acquainted with a "live" courtroom setting, observe a trial from a juror's perspective, and to listen as the judges comment on what works and what doesn't during trial. This experience is of great educational value for law students and young lawyers.

The Trial Advocacy Program is seeking more than 150 volunteers to participate:

November 15: 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

King County Courthouse
516 - 3rd Avenue
Seattle, WA 98104

To volunteer as a Mock Trial Juror or for questions about the Trial Advocacy Program, please contact Jenny Reséndez, WYLD Liaison at jennyr@wsba.org 206-733-5951. We would very much appreciate RSVPs by Friday, October 31st.
