Women's Law Caucus Cell Phone Donation Drive

As you may know, October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month. As a part of its Domestic Violence Awareness Month activities, the ABA Commission on Domestic Violence is sponsoring a cell phone donation drive throughout the month of October. Through its long-running HopeLine program, Verizon Wireless collects no-longer-used wireless phones and equipment in any condition from any service provider. The used phones are either refurbished or recycled. With the funds raised from the sale of the refurbished phones, Verizon Wireless donates wireless phones and airtime to victims, and provides funding and other contributions to non-profit domestic violence shelters and prevention programs across the country.

The Women's Law Caucus is collecting used wireless phones, batteries, and accessories from any wireless service provider on behalf of this great cause. If you have items you would like to contribute, please drop them off in the white collection box on the circulation desk in the library through the end of the month.

If you would like to learn more about the HopeLine Project, check out <http://aboutus.vzw.com/communityservice/hopeLine.html>

If you have questions or concerns, please contact Denise Pruitt, drpruitt@seattleu.edu

Thank you in advance for your help!

A Conversation with Professor Dean Spade

Money Problems: Balancing a Commitment to Social Justice with Concerns About Financial Security

Monday, October 27, 2008
12:00 -12:50 p.m.
Sullivan Hall, Room C5

Refreshments will be provided.

This short interactive workshop will be a place to confront the hard issues law students face balancing student debt, career choices, family obligations and a desire to use legal skills to change the world. We will explore the complexities of navigating different kinds of pressures and retaining a focus on doing work that we feel passionate about and believe in. We'll talk about how to put our own choices in the broader context of the domestic and global wealth gaps, and how to build community conversations about the ethical choices we face when it comes to money amongst our friends and colleagues.

For more information, please contact James Tan at tanj@seattleu.edu.

Teaching Rebellion: Stories from the Grassroots Mobilization in Oaxaca

"Two-Faced Racism: White in the Backstage and Frontstage."

Dr. Feagin will speak in Pigott Auditorium on Monday, October 27, at 7 p.m.

Joe Feagin has published more than 190 articles and 55 books that focus on racism, sexism, and classism. Examples of his work include The Myth of the Model Minority: Asian Americans Facing Racism (2008); Two-Faced Racism: Whites in the Backstage and Frontstage (2007); Racial and Ethnic Relations (8th ed. 2007); Systemic Racism: A Theory of Oppression (2006); The Many Costs of Racism (2003); The Agony of Education: Black Students at White Colleges and Universities (1996); and Living with Racism: The Black Middle Class (1994). His book with Harlan Hahn, Ghetto Revolts (1973), was nominated for a Pulitzer Prize, and two books, Living with Racism and White Racism, have won the Gustavus Myers Center's Outstanding Human Rights Book Award.

Dr. Feagin received his bachelor's degree at Baylor University in 1960 and a doctorate in sociology from Harvard University in 1966. He has taught at the University of California-Riverside, the University of Texas, and the University of Florida, and currently serves as McFadden Professor of Sociology at Texas A&M University. He served as Scholar-in-Residence at the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights from 1974 to 1975 and as president of the American Sociological Association from 1999 to 2000.

10 free spots for law students: If you are interested, please email Rebecca Parker at parkerr@seattleu.edu.

Fee includes written materials, continental breakfast and lunch

Overview

Don't miss this great opportunity for attorneys of all levels of experience! Whether you are learning for the first time, or modernizing and supplementing existing skills, the Motions Practice CLE will be a useful tool for you and your colleagues. Focusing on effective written and oral advocacy, and on the use of technology, currently presiding judges and retired judges from JAMS will provide their insights concerning effective motions advocacy, will dispel the myths under which many still operate, and will provide practical tips on the use of technology in courtrooms. Prolumina representatives will provide you with a hands-on opportunity to learn about how to effectively and efficiently use modern technology to emphasize and highlight your arguments and evidence. You will be given an opportunity to put this information to use by presenting an argument, which will be recorded for your benefit, in front of a panel of judges and JAMS arbitrators who will critique your performance. Take advantage of this educational and networking opportunity. Class size will be limited to 30, so sign up now to reserve your spot

Washington State Bar Association: Young Lawyers Division-Volunteer Opportunity Mock Trials

Each year, the Washington State Bar Association Young Lawyers Division coordinates a Trial Advocacy Program. The second weekend of the program consists of mock trials at the King County Courthouse in Seattle. They are conducted entirely in character as if they were real trials, with local county judges presiding. The judges also provide constructive oral feedback on the participants’ performance immediately following the trial.

We are recruiting young lawyers and law students to act as jury members in the mock trials. This is an excellent opportunity to become acquainted with a “live” courtroom setting, observe a trial from a juror’s perspective, and to listen as the judges comment on what works and what doesn’t during trial. This experience is of great educational value for law students and young lawyers.

The Trial Advocacy Program is seeking more than 150 volunteers to participate:

November 15: 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

King County Courthouse
516 - 3rd Avenue
Seattle, WA 98104

To volunteer as a Mock Trial Juror or for questions about the Trial Advocacy Program, please contact Jenny Reséndez, WYLD Liaison at jennyr@wsba.org 206-733-5951. We would very much appreciate RSVPs by Friday, October 31st.

Volunteers Needed to give Tours of the law school for youth court members on November 22

On November 22, the court is hosting a youth court training at Seattle University School of Law for youth and adults. We have folks from Cheney WA to Port Angeles, Olympia to Bellingham coming. We would like to offer the opportunity to have a tour of the law school between 2 and 3 p.m. on that Saturday, November 22 (the Saturday before the Thanksgiving weekend).

If you can volunteer and give a tour to youth and community members on November 22 between 2 and 3pm, please email Carol Cochran at ccochran@seattleu.edu. Thanks!

Campus Ministry Events

Hello and welcome to the 2008-2009 academic year! This email is absolutely packed with fantastic opportunities through Campus Ministry. Whether you come from a particular religious tradition or not, all are welcome at Campus Ministry events! Please notice that there is something for everyone – from retreats to Bible study, Catholic Mass to small faith groups, Eid Dinner and Zen meditation. And don't forget about our incredible social justice and community service opportunities. We know you'll find something that you will love.
