a.) Professional

An individual may be permitted to enroll in a course for credit with the permission of the Associate Dean and the instructor if the course is career-related and such credit is part of a program of continuing education and/or for reimbursement of tuition expenses. Normal fees apply. Such credit will not apply toward a law school degree.

b.) Auditor

An individual who wishes to enroll in a course without receiving credit for such course and who is not regularly enrolled in the Law School may do so with permission of the Associate Dean and the course instructor. The cost will be one/half the normal fees. Seattle University Law School alumni may audit up to 6 credits at no charge.

9. Please state the reason you wish to enroll in these courses (note place of employment and position if reason is job related)

10. List all Colleges and Universities you have attended.
