

SARAH LOUISE BISHOP

---

EDUCATION

YALE LAW SCHOOL, New Haven, CT

J.D., June 2008

Activities: Coker Fellow, Prof. Richard Brooks (legal writing teaching assistant)
Yale Law Journal, Notes Editor
Yale Journal of Law & Feminism, Articles Editor
Research Assistant to Prof. William N. Eskridge, Jr.

HARVARD COLLEGE, Cambridge, MA

A.B., summa cum laude, Classics, June 2005

Honors: Phi Beta Kappa
Pease Thesis Prize for best thesis on a Latin topic
Newbold Rhineland Landon Memorial Scholarship

EXPERIENCE

SEATTLE UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW, Seattle, WA

Distinguished Practitioner in Residence, Summer 2023-present

Affiliated Scholar, Spring 2023

Teaching Legal Writing, Skills, and Values. Researching and writing a law review article on the scènes à faire doctrine in copyright law; presented the project at the annual Works in Progress in IP conference at Suffolk University School of Law.

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA LEVIN COLLEGE OF LAW, Gainesville, FL

Legal Skills Professor, 2019-2022

Created and taught courses in federal pre-trial civil practice—including pleadings, written and informal discovery, depositions, and settlement negotiations; copyright law; and legal writing. Member of the faculty federal Judicial Clerkships Committee, and chair in 2021-22. Faculty advisor to the student Art Law Society.

CLARICK GUERON REISBAUM LLP, New York, NY

Associate, 2014-2019

Researched, drafted, and argued briefs and motions filed in state and federal courts with a focus on art (including tort, contract, and intellectual property issues), employment, corporate, and securities disputes. Managed pre-trial processes, including negotiating with opposing counsel, handling client communication, overseeing document discovery, and taking and defending fact and expert depositions. Served on the trial team for a prominent art fraud litigation.

U.S. DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF HAWAII, Honolulu, HI

Law Clerk, 2012-2013

Researched and drafted memoranda and opinions regarding dispositive motions and trials on a wide variety of legal topics, including: employment discrimination and retaliation; administrative law; personal injury law; and the Federal Debt Collection Practices Act.

BINGHAM MCCUTCHEN LLP, San Francisco, CA

Associate, 2008-2012

Researched and drafted: motions to dismiss, Daubert motions and oppositions and motions in limine in federal court; petition and reply for writ of certiorari and amicus brief before U.S. Supreme Court; demurrers in state court; arbitration briefs and discovery motions in FINRA arbitrations. Managed document review teams. Represented prisoner in Section 1983 civil rights suit and negotiated settlement on eve of trial. Co-manager of office's Women Attorneys Mentoring Program. Associate representative on firm's Diversity Committee.

NEW YORK CITY LAW DEPARTMENT, New York City, NY

Summer Honors Intern, Summer 2006

Drafted motions for summary judgment, motion to dismiss, and discovery documents. Researched and wrote memoranda on complex legal questions.

SMALL CLAIMS ADVISORY SERVICE, Cambridge, MA

Office Director & Finance Director, 2004-2005

Legal Research Director, 2003-2004

Recruited, trained, and managed volunteers in daily staffing of Small Claims information hotline. Supervised handling of over 100 case files. Edited new edition of MassPIRG small claims guide.

ADMISSIONS

New York and California state courts; U.S. Courts of Appeal for the Second and Ninth Circuits; U.S. District Courts for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York and Northern and Central Districts of California.